Blitz Talk with Julia McGillivray

Senior in Mechanical and Aerospace Engineering

Email: julia_mcg26@gwmail.gwu.edu

LinkedIn: linkedin.com/in/julia-mcgillivray/

Julia's experience and interests lie in aerodynamic and fluid analysis. She interned at Draper over the summer, gaining real-world project experience in aerospace, and is staying on part-time for the year! She joined Design-Build-Fly this year, and was on Engineers without Borders for two years. She also work in the admissions office, representing my experience with the MAE department here. She is also a Presidential Scholar at The George Washington University.
